

Cluster Fig Tree

Common name: Cluster Fig Tree

Botanical name: Ficus racemosa

Family: Moraceae; Name in Tamil: Aththi, Malaiyin munivan

Field identification: Large tree, deciduous, up to 30 m height. Trunk buttressed. Figs, which grow in clusters on or very close to the trunk. Leaves simple, alternate, oblong-lance shaped

Location on campus: On either ends of Mango Road, behind Canteen, CHAD Residential area

References: (i) Krishen, P. (2006) Trees of Delhi: A field guide. Dorling Kindersley, New Delhi. p56-57. (ii) Wikipedia. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ficus_racemosa (iii) Flowers of India. www.flowersofindia.net